VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Cooperative Observer Peterson said the thermometer registered 15 1-2 degrees Monday morning.

The weather since February 2 is strictly in accordance with ground-hogism.

Sunday was one of those spasmodical knee-scorching, back-shivering days.

Plans have been drawn for a new Chicago hospital to cost $3,000,000. But Newberry is not Chicago.

Work on the annex to the Knowlton hospital will begin at an early date.—The State, 2d. Newberry helped to build that annex.

Did you see him Turner trick?—Atlanta Journal. Go way. If you can't, Duncan. When you lose her, come here to Hunter.

Two old colored citizens of Newberry died this week—Paul Young on Sunday morning and Alan Waldrop on Monday.

There were three drunk cases on the recorder's blotter awaiting results in the court on Monday morning. Five dollars apiece.

Mr. Mace Wright had a fight with Mr. Newton Hogg. Recorder Earhardt on Monday fined Mr. Wright $10 and Mr. Hogg $5.

Those men who told the young lady that they would have to see their wives before buying tickets to the show weren't fooling her a bit. She knew right off that that was the end of their buying tickets.

Monday was a very cold salesday, the mercury registering 15 1-2 in the morning. There was only one sale by the master, the case of the Newberry Savings Bank against Frank G. Spearman, Jr., and John R. Spearman. Both tracts bought by J. J. Langford, 347 acres for $650, and 240 for $480.

DR. HARMS LOST CHECKS.

Found by Policeman in Washington and Mailed to President Harms Here.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—When the Rev. Henry Harms, president of Newberry college, left Washington for South Carolina, after his recent Northern tour in the interest of the fund which the college is raising in order to clinch an offer made by Mr. Carnegie, he discovered that he had lost checks aggregating $325, drawn in his favor by Senator Murray Crane, of Massachusetts. President Harms at the first opportunity telegraphed the banks here to stop payment. The missing checks were found here yesterday by a policeman in a pile of trash on the floor of the union station and have been mailed to President Harms.

The Starving Chinese.

"We may never have known what it is to be hungry and to have no prospect of satisfying its pangs; but thousands in China tonight are lying down on the bare, cold earth, facing the merciless winter without food, without clothing and without work, living on herbs and roots and the bark of trees until these fail; selling or killing their children and then themselves lying down to die. And the thousands will be millions by the time this appeal reaches our home lands."—From letter in the Spirit of Missions for January.

Dr. Geo. B. Cromer is the representative of the Red Cross in Newberry.

Native of Newberry.

In the last issue of the Union Times the Jonesville correspondent in his letter dated January 29, has the following paragraph:

"Mr. Sam Murtishaw died at his home in Jacksonville, Ark., on the first day of this month. Mr. Murtishaw was 70 years of age and was a native of Newberry county and a cousin of our W. H. Murtishaw. He was a Confederate veteran and a member of the Third South Carolina regiment."

Report From Rest Room.

The month of January on ledger of rest room shows how much it has filled a felt want in our city. Three hundred and forty-five women and children have been made comfortable by a warm fire and shielded from the frost of an unusual cold winter. The appreciation for this comfort and best of all the chance of bringing their young children with them for a day's outing is now possible and gives pleasure to all the county and strangers, who have visited the room during the holidays.

In this connection, we wish to extend to J. Epps Brown, the popular vice president of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, in behalf of all the women in his native county, their appreciation and sincere thanks for the assurance he gives that a free telephone will be placed in the rest room for their benefit. This donation from a son of Newberry county speaks well for a generous heart and a true gentleman.

Carolina vs. Newberry.

The basketball game at the college gymnasium, which was scheduled for Tuesday night, will be played on Friday night. The University of South Carolina has a strong team, as evidenced by the game played at Columbia some time ago, in which Newberry won by a narrow margin of 2 points. Newberry's team has been practicing hard and is now in good form for this coming contest.

It is hoped that a large crowd of spectators will be out Friday night to greet the university boys. The gymnasium will be warm and comfortable, and this added to the "heat" contest will be enough to warm and cheer the coldest Newberrians. The game will be called a little earlier than usual so as to allow the visitors to catch the "cannon ball" back to Columbia. The exact time will be announced later. The usual admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. The college team has fine chances for the State inter-collegiate basketball pentathlon this year, and it is only right that all who can should come out and help them win at all times.

Ground Hog Saw His Shadow.

The ground hog came out on Friday. He saw his shadow and he scuttled back to his hole, to remain for six weeks of bad weather.

County Medical Society.

At the meeting of the County Medical society in Dr. O. B. Mayer's office on Monday morning the following officers were elected: President, P. G. Ellesor; vice president, W. A. Dunn; secretary and treasurer, Jno. B. Setzler. The delegates to the State society hold over: P. G. Ellesor, principal; W. G. Houseal, alternate.

"How to Use the Telephone."

"How to Use the Telephone" is a handy and useful little booklet being distributed by the Bell Telephone company to subscribers to the system. The manager at Newberry has handed the reporter a copy. The subscribers will all thank the management for copies and will find them very convenient. The Bell Telephone company is always looking to the interests of its subscribers and never stands back for expenses. The country would be at a loss now without the great system of telephone.

COUNTY TEACHERS.

Meeting to be Held Saturday of Unusual Interest—Teachers and Trustees Urged to Attend.

The county superintendent of education says that he is exceedingly anxious for every teacher in Newberry county to attend the County Teachers' association to be held in the high school building at Newberry on Saturday, February 10. The meeting will begin promptly at 11 o'clock and will not detain the teachers and those who attend much over an hour, if any.

"I am very anxious," said Mr. Aull, "that every teacher be present at this meeting and I am especially anxious that as many of the trustees as can possibly arrange to do so, will come to the meeting, as Miss Rudd, who is to make the principal talk, is engaged in improvement work of the rural schools, and her talk, of course, will be along lines pertaining peculiarly to rural school improvement."

"If a sufficient number of trustees come, I would be pleased to have them hold a meeting immediately after the teachers' meeting, and talk over conditions in connection with the rural schools in their respective districts. Miss Elise C. Rudd is treasurer and field agent of South Carolina Improvement association and is devoting her entire time to the work and interest of the rural schools. I would like for the teachers and trustees come prepared to ask questions and discuss matters pertaining to their work."

TO VISIT SCHOOLS.

County Superintendent of Education Will Visit Johnstone, Union, Jolly Street Wednesday.

The county superintendent of education has notified the teachers and trustees of Johnstone, Union and Jolly Street schools that he will visit their schools at 10, 12 and 2 o'clock respectively, on Wednesday, February 7, and he also insists that as many patrons, including the mothers, as is possible will also be present.

Beautiful Birthday Party.

Master Horace Zeigler celebrated his sixth birthday with a delightful party last Wednesday afternoon at his home in College street, from 4 to 6 o'clock, entertaining quite a number of his little friends and school-mates of the kindergarten school, and the little tots made a very attractive appearance.

After having a merry time playing games, they were formed in line by their teacher, Miss Rose Harris, and marched, two abreast, into the dining room, which was brightly decorated in red and white, to the beautiful table where too, the color scheme, white and red, was in evidence, the birthday cake, with its six red candles gracing the centre.

Then more games closed this happy afternoon.

The following children were present: Annie Dunston, Mary Lou and Kate Bullock, Ophe Blease, Elizabeth Schumpert, Edna Sanders, Mary McClure, Tommy Welling and Delma Bailes; John R. and White Bullock, Lawrence Spearman, Lamar Bailes, Henry and Frank Adams, Howard Dean, Carlisle Harrell, Oliver Dunston, Ralph Potter, William Vaughn, Cyril Hutchinson and Arthur Asbill.

Passes on Pensions.

The County Pension Board composed of W. G. Peterson, chairman; R. T. C. Hunter, D. W. Kinard, David Pitts and Dr. W. G. Houseal met in the auditor's office on Monday to pass on applications. Mr. G. Sam Moore was raised to class C, No. 1. Mr. J. M. Koon was transferred from Fairfield to Newberry.

The following were added: Mrs. Lucy P. Boozer, Mrs. Mary P. Hawkins, Mrs. Polly C. Graham, H. M. Barger, Mrs. E. F. George, Mrs. Rosa Caldwell, Mrs. M. C. Riser, M. A. Renwick, Mrs. Missouri Marrs, L. Y. Havard, Mrs. S. C. Havard.

The board refused to grant applications of Mr. G. M. Shealy and Mr. J. G. Rikard.

Application may be filed with the pension board up to February 22, when the final meeting will be held.

The Ford Agency.

Mr. McHardy Mower has the agency for the Ford automobiles in Newberry county, and in Jacks, Cross Hill and Hunter townships in Laurens county. His headquarters are at the Newberry Machine shops, where Mr. W. C. Waldrop is engaged in the automobile repair business. Mr. Mower now has cars on hand ready for delivery, and he or Mr. Waldrop would be pleased to demonstrate the cars. Both these gentlemen are experts in their line, and it is expected they will do a large business.

WILLIAM H. EDDY, SR.

Long and Useful Life Came to Peaceful End—An Honorable Career.

William Henry Eddy, Sr., who was born on Staten Island, N. Y., October 30, 1832, died at Jalapa, S. C., February 1, 1912.

Mr. Eddy, after finishing his trade as a carriage maker, when about 21 years old, started out from home, coming on South, working in cities on the way, and reached Newberry about 1855. He worked a while here and then went to Jalapa, where he settled and married Miss Susan E. Hunter, daughter of the late Joseph T. Hunter, then a large and prosperous farmer of Newberry district. To this union were born a large family of children. Two died in infancy, a boy and a girl—the first a girl, the last a boy. Five boys and four girls lived to manhood and womanhood. The first to die was Miss Flora L., who died some 12 years ago; the next was John A., who passed suddenly away four years ago; then five months later Mrs. Wm. T. Buford; then 15 months ago the mother was called home. Geo. W., of near Whitmire; Wm. H., of this city; Jos. H., of Ninety Six; Mrs. Jno. N. Livingston, of the county, and a single son and daughter who have always lived with their parents at Jalapa, survive.

Mr. Eddy was a man who attended strictly to his own business. He was a Confederate veteran and went through the battles and hardships of the war, being a worker of iron and wood, he rendered valuable service with the wagon trains, repairing them, and also shoeing horses. On one occasion when he was plying a boat between Charleston and Fort Sumter and picking up dead and wounded soldiers he had a load and was pulling for the shore when he heard a voice calling "Eddy." He could not stand that, but turned back and picked up and saved the man, Wash Goree.

Mr. Eddy was devoted to his family and church, old Tranquil. After the old church was all dilapidated, with no members scarcely, he got some help, secured a lot, and tore it down piece by piece and moved it to Jalapa, where it now stands. This house was always open to preachers and he could always be found at his place and had the fire made and water for the preacher, and hymn books and Bible in their place.

He has one brother living, Geo. W. Eddy, of Tabor, N. J., now about 78 years old.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of returning our heart-felt thanks to the many kind friends who, by their untiring and ceaseless attentions, rendered such valuable service, as far as human hands could, to alleviate the sufferings of our dear father in his last and fatal illness. May God abundantly bless each one of them and when they come to their beds of affliction may they have such kind, tender, loving hands to attend them.

Children of W. H. Eddy, Sr.

Mr. Lavender in Newberry.

Mr. D. R. Lavender has sold his moving picture business in Laurens and returned to Newberry, where he will remain and give his entire time to the business here. This will please the people of Newberry city and county, because nearly everybody at one time or another goes to the moving picture show at the old court house, a great many of them again and again; and everybody else will want to go oftener now that he will introduce the talking pictures. The public really owes Mr. Lavender a debt of gratitude for bringing the remarkable talking moving pictures here, and for not raising the price of admission. First of the season Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and nights, 5 and 10 cents.
